

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Periculum Capital Company Announces the Formation of its Corporate Restructuring Group

Indianapolis, IN, March 26, 2008 – To further expand the investment banking services offered to its clients and to address deteriorating capital market conditions, Periculum Capital Company has formed a Corporate Restructuring Group. The group will be led by Christopher A. Black, Christopher M. Caniff and Fritz J. Schutte.

The newly formed Corporate Restructuring Group will focus on companies with revenues in excess of $20 million that are under financial or balance sheet stress. The group will offer its clients the following services: Debt Placement, Sale Advisory, Financial Crisis Management and Balance Sheet Restructuring.

Mr. Caniff is the current head of the firm's Debt Placement Group, and in addition to restructuring experience, he has over 10 years of experience advising companies on mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Black, former Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of American Commercial Lines, Inc. (NASDAQ: ACLI) and Mr. Schutte, former Treasurer of Wabash National (NYSE: WNC), bring significant experience in capital markets transactions and corporate restructurings to Periculum.

Caniff stated, "The deterioration in the financial markets over the past year, highlighted by the JP Morgan distressed buyout of Bear Stearns, is unprecedented. Within the last several months the turmoil on Wall Street has reached the commercial banks serving our market, and Periculum is well positioned to help companies navigate the stormy waters ahead."

Periculum Capital Company, LLC provides investment banking services to middle market companies located primarily in the Midwest. Periculum brings to the market the professional commitment and transactional expertise that historically has been provided to large enterprises by major investment banking firms.
